

Missing

Mrs Alethea Taylor, aged 63, who lives in Orleton near Ludlow, was last seen at around 8.30am on 19 January and she has not been seen since.

There have been possible sightings in the Orleton, Bircher and Tenbury areas but nothing confirmed.

There are now real concerns about her welfare. She has been missing for several nights and it goes without saying that we are very keen to find her and return her home as soon as we can.

Police say “We believe she is vulnerable and there are concerns about her mental state. Alethea is described as being white, approximately 5ft 7inches tall, and as having short dark but slightly greying hair. When last seen she was wearing her night clothes but at this stage we do not know what she was wearing when she left home.”

Police urge anyone who has seen Alethea, or who knows where she is, to contact them as soon as possible and anyone with ANY information should call police on 0300 333 3000 or 101.
